

Hindustan Motors zooms over 10% on robust Feb sales, goodReturns, March 08

Shares of Kolkata-based automaker Hindustan Motors rallied over 10 per cent in early trade on Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) after the sales of C K Birla group company increased during the month of February 2013. "The company sold 826 units of passenger car and LCVs in the month as compared to 310 units in previous February," Hindustan Motors said in a statement. Buoyed by development, shares of the company gained as much as 10.73 per cent to trade at Rs 9.90 a piece on the BSE. In a similar fashion, shares of the company were quoting at Rs 9.45 a piece, up 5.59 per cent on the National Stock Exchange (NSE). Meanwhile, the broader benchmark Sensex was quoting at 19,535.51, up 136.21 points or 0.63 per cent at 9:35 hours.

<http://www.goodreturns.in/news/2013/03/08/hindustan-motors-zooms-robust-feb-sales-163409.html>