

Mitsubishi Outlander Goes Chrome, ZigWheels, August 26

Mitsubishi's sporty SUV now gets a limited edition christened Chrome promising more features and style.

The Mitsubishi Outlander has been the Jap manufacturers sportiest SUV offering. Now in its second avatar, Mitsubishi has just launched the Outlander in limited Chrome edition. The Chrome edition features a large rear spoiler which aids aerodynamics as well as visual appeal, chrome plated outside rear view mirror, body colored side protection moulding to protect the body from scratches and side skirts with chrome inlays for added flair. On the inside there is now a roof-mounted DVD player which provides a 9 inch wide crystal clear TFT screen with swivel action and full function remote. Also there are now LED floor illumination lamps which will provide the front driver and passenger side's nine different floor illumination combinations which make Outlander interiors even more inviting and exciting during night.

Mr. Yoshiaki Wada, HM-Mitsubishi's Head-Marketing and Channel Development, said, "Outlander Chrome is a unique combination of comfort and class, style and finesse. It is chic yet sturdy with upgraded features and fashionable interiors like large rear spoiler, body coloured side protection moulding, side skirts with chrome inlays, roof mounted DVD player, LED floor illumination lamps etc which will make driving an experience for our customers."

Outlander Chrome is priced at Rs. 20.55 lakh ex-showroom Delhi. It is available in an exciting range of colours like Haute Red, Vogue White, Shimmering Ash and Runway Grey.
