

Mitsubishi Pajero Sport wins BBC Top Gear's Off-roader of the Year 2012 award, Vehicle Passion, December 18

Launched by Hindustan Motors earlier this year in March, Mitsubishi Pajero Sport SUV has won the Off-roader of the Year 2012 award by auto magazine BBC Top Gear.

Mr. Uttam Bose, Managing Director, Hindustan Motors, received the prestigious award at a function organized by BBC Top Gear at the Kingdom of Dreams in Gurgaon on December 10.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Bose said, "This award is yet another endorsement of Pajero Sport's invincibility across all terrains, especially the rough and tough one. This mighty sport utility vehicle, which has the unique distinction of having won the world's toughest car contest – Dakar Rally – consecutively for 13 times, is a testimony to the strong collaboration between Hindustan Motors and Mitsubishi Motors Corporation of Japan."

BBC Top Gear said about Pajero Sport in an article titled The Legend Lives On: "The Pajero Sport's simplicity translates into reliability. And when the road disappears, reliability can be the difference between life and death."
